VISIT THE NEW FOREST HILLS

– The perfect venue for your next golf day

FOREST HILLS GOLF CLUB

With panoramic views over the beautiful Forest of Dean and the hills of Herefordshire beyond Forest Hills Golf Club offers a challenging, naturally undulating, parkland golf course set in the beautiful Forest Of Dean, Gloucestershire.

Regarded as one of the finest golf courses in the county, the course boasts such excellent drainage that the tees and greens can be used all year round. Recognised by the PGA as a venue for regional events, Forest Hills has experience hosting many tournaments including the Forest Classic attracting players come from the surrounding counties of Monmouthshire, Herefordshire as well as Bristol, Cardiff and Worcestershire.

Those who have played Forest Hills in the past will already have fond memories of our club and playing our course. With huge investments made over the last two years both on and off the course, including a fully refurbished clubhouse, pro shop and a fleet of new buggys there really isn't a better time to visit our club. On the course Eco Bunkers have been introduced around the course along with new green keeping equipment and pathways ensure a playing experience that you will remember all year round.

We look forward to seeing you soon!
